Howard Mavity was quoted in Inside Counsel on April 7, 2015. The article "Germanwings Tragedy Evokes Labor and Employment Concerns Regarding Mental Health (Part 1)" discussed why companies must take a close look at their policies and procedures and figure out a way to promote safety in the workplace, while at the same time offering help and support for employees who may need it.

Howard said, "You can't neglect to focus on addressing and handling these issues, and you can't neglect to beat the drum to get people to seek help. In the past, it's seemed as if employees don't want to talk about these matters and that employers don't want to know... but there needs to be a paradigm shift."
