In the article, "More Than 100 Tech Firms Join Legal Fight Against Trump's Travel Ban," featured in the Los Angeles Times, attorney Davis Bae discusses the friend-of-the-court brief filed by many tech firms, arguing against President Trump's ban on refugees and travel from seven predominantly Muslim nations.

"What's so unusual here is the urgency with which they came together," said Davis Bae, an immigration attorney at Fisher Phillips, who represents both large tech firms and individuals. "It doesn't happen often."
