In the article, "San Francisco Is Fighting Trump's 'Sanctuary Cities' Order," featured in SHRM, Attorney Alden Parker comments on President Trump's executive order to withhold funds from "sanctuary cities" that don't comply with immigration-related requests from the federal government.

"The executive order is a little muddled," said Alden Parker, an attorney with Fisher Phillips in San Francisco and Sacramento, Calif. "In very general terms, it says that cities, counties and states shall comply with federal law, and one of the potential outcomes if they don't is that they'll be denied federal funding."
