Attorneys Tapped for Insight on The U.S. Supreme Court's Overtime Rule

News
2.24.23

In an article about the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling on the overtime rule, McKnight's Senior Living cites an insight co-authored by Patrick Dalin, Marty Heller, and Corina Johnson. In their piece, the authors explain that high-earning workers making more than $200,000 a year might be eligible for overtime pay. Using this Supreme Court case as an example, the co-authors explain that "the decision is a wake-up call for all employers to review their OT exemptions to ensure they are compliant with applicable federal and state requirements."

The article also cites their four tips for employers in light of the ruling.
