The 2014 HR Academy - Social Media & Electronic Communication Policies

Event
12.18.14

The Cumming-Forsyth County Chamber of Commerce's Human Resource Council and Fisher Phillips are pleased to present the 2014 HR Academy. Human resources professionals and those who perform human resources duties are cordially invited to attend.

The HR Academy is a series of seminars that are designed to provide HR professionals with knowledge about the most prominent topics that impact their industry.

Date and Location:
December 18, 2014

DeKalb Office
1320 Ridgeland Pkwy
Alpharetta, GA 30004

Time:
9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Topic: Social Media & Electronic Communication Policies
In this age of electronic communication, social media has added another dimension to the array of issues employers must address in order to maintain the integrity of the workplace. The courts are faced with numerous lawsuits arising out of employee discipline for online conduct. This presentation will provide practical instruction on how to properly manage and create social media and electronic communication policies.

Cost:
$30 for Chamber Members
$35 for Non-Chamber Members

To register click here or please call (770) 887-6461

About the Presenter

Copyright © 2024 Fisher Phillips LLP. All Rights Reserved.

About the Presenter:

Tracy Moon is a partner in the Atlanta office of Fisher Phillips. He represents employers in all aspects of labor and employment law. Tracy counsels and trains employers on labor and employment law, including conducting on-site compliance inspections and in-house management training programs.

For questions or to RSVP, please contact Stacey McReynolds at smcreynolds@fisherphillips.com or (404) 240-4280.

This program has been submitted to the HR Certification Institute for review.

Related People

Tracy L. Moon, Jr.
Partner
404.240.4246
Email

Copyright © 2024 Fisher Phillips LLP. All Rights Reserved.