Fisher Phillips has joined the 25th anniversary celebration of the Georgia State University College of Law as a Premier Sponsor. "Everyone associated with the College of Law is delighted that Fisher Phillips has made such a substantial contribution to our 25th anniversary celebration programs," said Steven Kaminshine, the fifth dean of the law school. "Their recognition of our legal education efforts and our important role in the development of America's lawyers is a very meaningful gift to us. Fisher Phillips is making possible the many exciting and engaging anniversary programs the college has organized."
