Overview of Event

As stated in Mark Shickman's publication for the American Bar Association, the elimination of harassment in the workplace is extremely important for every employer. Improper conduct in the workplace often has financial as well as moral consequences for employers – including monetary liabilities.

The Cumming-Forsyth County Chamber of Commerce's Human Resource Council is pleased to provide employers with a Workshop on Harassment Prevention. The workshop will equip managers, HR professionals, and business leaders with tools to address the following topics:

- How to Handle Harassment Issues in the Workplace
- Compliant Investigations: Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

About the Presenters

Tracy Moon is a partner in the Atlanta office of Fisher & Phillips. He represents employers in all aspects of labor and employment law. Tracy counsels and trains employers on labor and employment law, including conducting on-site compliance inspections and in-house management training programs.

Phil Monaghan is the Director of Talent Strategy for the American Cancer Society. He leads the HR Business Partner team in the delivery of human resource services for the Corporate Center and the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network.
