Fisher & Phillips LLP Breakfast Briefing

Please join Fisher & Phillips the third Thursday of every month for breakfast and a briefing on a hot HR topic.

This complimentary event is a great opportunity to network and talk with other HR professionals and our expert lawyers in an informal and collaborative setting to get the information you need to stay in the know.

There is no cost to attend these briefings. Upcoming discussions:

May 21 – Anatomy of an Employment Lawsuit

Human resources can be a difficult field to navigate. Despite your best efforts, there may be times a disgruntled employee or former employee files suit against your company. What do you do when that happens? In this briefing, we will walk you through each step of an employment lawsuit, and provide you with practical guidance to manage the litigation process. We also will discuss “lessons learned” from employment litigation, and how to apply those lessons to reduce your risk of liability.

June 18 – What to Do When the Government Knocks

Congratulations! You’ve been selected for an audit by a government agency. Well, maybe that’s not exactly how you are feeling. Let’s face it, audits aren’t fun. If you are faced with one, it is imperative that you know how to respond and protect your company from the potential consequences, such as large penalties or even criminal sanctions. This program will walk you through the preparation of a pre-audit action plan and will outline your rights against unreasonable government actions.
