ORLANDO, FL (June 27, 2013) – The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers is proud to announce the election of Jeffrey E. Mandel, Managing Partner of the Orlando office of Fisher Phillips as a newly elected Fellow. Election as a Fellow is the highest recognition by one's colleagues of sustained outstanding performance in the profession, exemplifying integrity, dedication and excellence.

Mandel has practiced law for nearly 27 years representing employers, in both the private and public sectors, in all aspects of employment and traditional labor law. He counsels clients on employment issues including: employment discrimination and retaliation, civil rights, disabilities, family and medical leave, wage and hour matters, military leave, employment policies, and employment agreements.

Mandel also handles employment-related litigation before the state and federal courts and administrative agencies. He is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in Labor and Employment and has served as a contributing editor of the American Bar Association's publication, The Fair Labor Standards Act.

The eighteenth installation of Fellows will be held November 9, 2013 in New Orleans, LA. With the current installation, the College is represented by almost 1200 members in 45 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and eight provinces from Canada.

The College was the vision of a number of the Fellows. The idea was to further establish this profession in all its aspects as one uniquely important to the world of labor and employment law, individual rights, collective bargaining and dispute resolution. The College was established in 1995 through an initiative of the Council of The Section of Labor and Employment Law of the American Bar Association.
