

Fisher Phillips Announces Managing Partner of Fort Lauderdale Office

News

10.01.13

Fisher Phillips announced that Suzanne K. Bogdan has been named the new managing partner of the firm's Fort Lauderdale office. Bogdan has been with the firm since 1994 and chairs the Education Practice Group.

Bogdan said: "The attorneys and staff in our Fort Lauderdale office are committed to delivering superior client service everyday. I am honored to be able to help them to continue a long tradition here and across all of the Fisher Phillips offices."

Caulkins added: "Suzanne is a great choice for this role. I am confident that our clients will be well served by Suzanne's leadership, experience and knowledge."

Bogdan handles all types of employment-related matters, including claims for age, race, sex, disability, religious, and national origin discrimination arising under the various civil rights laws, as well as claims involving family leave issues, wage hour matters, and breach of contract. Bogdan is the Chair of the firm's Education Practice Group, actively representing more than 100 private educational institutions in employee, student, and board issues. Bogdan is "AV" Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. She was recognized as a South Florida "Top Lawyer" by South Florida Legal Guide, was included in The Best Lawyers in America 2013 and 2014 and was included in the 2012 edition of South Florida's Top Rated Lawyers, presented by Legal Leaders. Bogdan has served as the General Counsel for the Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce for the last four years.

Bogdan earned her law degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law and a Bachelor of Liberal Studies from Barry University in Miami.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.