COMMENTARY: SECURITY CAMERAS IN COMPANY BATHROOMS

News

Jan 16, 2014

An article by Partner Rich Meneghello was recently featured in the NY Daily Record and the Daily Journal of Commerce Oregon.

Before advising a client, any good attorney wants to examine prior case decisions, statutory citations, regulatory guidance and other resources to ensure a full understanding of the issue at play.

Rich wrote about a business owner in Virginia that never gave an employment lawyer the opportunity to tell him that his planned strategy of installing security cameras in his businesses' bathrooms was not wise.

A district attorney is now deciding whether to charge the owner with a misdemeanor crime.
