Suzanne Bogdan was featured in a Sun Sentinel article on January 24, 2014.

Suzanne was promoted to regional managing partner of the Fort Lauderdale office as a part of a planned transition and successor development within the firm.

“My appointment is a positive step in the organization’s commitment to developing more leaders within the firm,” said Suzanne. “I took the reins from Charley Caulkins, whose insight and wisdom has for many years help guide this office and I have learned a great deal from him. In addition, this is a vote of confidence in my growing role within the firm.”
