

Jim Holland Explains Love Contracts On 98.1 KMBZ News

News

2.14.14

Jim Holland was a guest on KMBZ in Kansas City to speak about love contracts.

A love contract policy establishes workplace guidelines for dating or romantically involved coworkers. The purpose is to limit the liability of an organization in the event that the romantic relationship of the dating couple ends.

“Its never a good idea to allow supervisors to have relationships with subordinates,” explained Jim. “Even in different departments.”

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

James R. Holland, II
Regional Managing Partner
816.842.8770
Email