

David Lichtenberg Joins New Jersey Office As Partner

News

2.18.14

David Lichtenberg has joined the firm's Murray Hill, New Jersey office as a partner.

He brings 17 years of employment law knowledge, including significant litigation experience in state and federal court.

In addition to his litigation practice and counseling clients on a day-to-day basis, he has appeared before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and various agencies in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

"We're pleased to have David join our team," said Rosemary Gousman, Managing Partner for the New Jersey office. "Our clients will benefit from his extensive experience in employment law, especially counseling and disability management issues."

Outside the office, David serves as VP of Legislation for the Morris County Chapter of the Society for Human Resources Management.
