Eric Uhl was quoted in the Portland Press Herald September 1, 2014 article "Fierce Loyalty, Historic Triumph At Market Basket."

Supermarket workers, middle management and customers all cooperated to return ousted CEO Arthur T. Demoulas to his former position.

Market Basket employees took a big risk going up against the company's top management and majority shareholders, said Eric. Although their stated goal was achieved, he added, it remains to be seen whether the restructured company will have the financial means to continue offering the generous wages and benefits employees have come to associate with Arthur T.
