

Like It or Not, It's Time to Face Obamacare

News

6.25.15

Lorie Maring was quoted in CFO on June 25, 2015. The article "Like It or Not, It's Time to Face Obamacare" discussed the Supreme Court ruling in favor of the government, and how the "employer mandate" stays in place and companies should start working to avoid the "Cadillac Tax."

Lorie was quoted on the impact of this decision.

"Today's decision will have little impact for employers that provide adequate and affordable coverage to their full-time employees in compliance with the ACA shared responsibility mandate," says Lorie Maring, an attorney with labor and employment law firm Fisher Phillips. "But for employers that were hoping for a last-minute reprieve from the ACA penalties, the Supreme Court's decision means they will need to reevaluate whether to offer coverage."

To read the full article, please visit CFO.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Lorie Maring

Partner

404.240.4225

Email

