FOUR NLRB CASES TO WATCH AS CLOCK TICKS ON JOHNSON'S TERM

News

Aug 5, 2015

Steve Bernstein was quoted in Law360 on August 5, 2015. The article "Four NLRB Cases To Watch As Clock Ticks On Johnson's Term" discussed how labor lawyers are bracing for a spurt of activity that will likely include rulings in high-profile cases involving the National Labor Relations Board's standard for qualifying as a joint employer and a unionization push for Northwestern football players before the impending departure of Harry I. Johnson III from the labor board later this month.

"I'm sure universities are watching this very closely to see if the court will issue a narrow decision or a far-reaching one," Steve said.
