FIGHT FOR $15 WALKOUTS COULD AFFECT BUSINESSES TODAY

News

Nov 10, 2015

Rosemary Gousman was quoted in NJ Biz on November 10, 2015. The article "Fight for $15 Walkouts Could Affect Businesses Today" discussed how walkouts and protests, spurred by the Fight for $15 movement, could affect some employers Tuesday as part of a nationwide demonstration.

Rosemary said demonstrating may take various forms.

"There might be individuals speaking out on social media, or even some off-duty employees outside leafleting or picketing," she said. "And the employer has to recognize that, even if their employees aren't in a union, this is still legally protected conduct to complain about wages or other terms and conditions of employment."
