The article, "Supreme Court Pick has Long Pro-Union History," featured in the Washington Examiner, discussed how organized labor leaders strongly praised President Obama's nomination Wednesday of Judge Merrick Garland to fill the vacant seat on the Supreme Court.

Steve Bernstein weighed in on his take of Obama's recent nomination.

"If Judge Garland is appointed to the Supreme Court, we can certainly expect him to continue to be highly deferential to the federal agencies in their exercise of administrative authority," said Steve Bernstein, a labor attorney with the management-side firm of Fisher Phillips.
