The article, "'Persuader Rule' Constricts Communications with Workers About Unions," featured in SHRM, discussed Another layer of red tape has been added for employers seeking to avoid unionization, thanks to the Department of Labor's (DOL's) final "persuader rule.

Steve Bernstein weighed in on the new rule.

He said the final rule is an intrusion on law firms' duty to keep communications with clients confidential and will present attorneys with the choice of complying with either the federal persuader rule or state bar rules.
