In the article, "Trump Administration Curbs Implementation Of Overtime, ACA, EEOC Pay Disclosure Rules," featured in Bloomberg BNA, attorney Caroline Brown comments on the White House memo instructing to freeze all pending regulations.

"It seems possible that the particular regulations fall outside of the memorandum entirely, given that the original implementation date has passed and the current injunction is a separate matter subsequent to the regulatory process," Caroline J. Brown, a lawyer who specializes in wage and hour law issues at Fisher Phillips in Atlanta, told Bloomberg BNA.
