In the article, "Trump Taps Republican Miscimarra to Head Labor Board," featured in the Washington Examiner, attorney Steven Bernstein comments on Philip Miscimarra possible nomination to head the National Labor Relations Board.

"Miscimarra has authored some of the more vigorous and compelling dissents we have seen in some time. An examination of those dissents may offer a roadmap of what we might expect going forward, as the board moves toward a return to full strength," said Steven Bernstein, a lawyer with the Florida-based management side firm Fisher & Phillips.
