

Insights, News & Events

LEGAL PERSPECTIVE: GETTING THROUGH SUPER BOWL WEEK AT WORK

News

Jan 30, 2017

In an interview with 11 Alive News Atlanta and NBC News, attorney Terri Stewart discusses the do's and don'ts at work for employees who are excited about the Atlanta Falcons going to the Super Bowl.

Terri covers the following in the interview:

- Dress code - Encourage Falcons themed dress code, it's good for office morale!
- Super Bowl Pools - Keep them local and small. Consider having the company pay for raffle prizes instead of employees contributing money.
- Attendance - Employers should expect some employees to call in "sick" the Monday after the game. Review your company policy on absences and be sure to apply it consistently.

To watch the full news clip, please visit 11 Alive News Atlanta.

Related People

Terri R. Stewart

Regional Managing Partner

404.240.4247