In an interview with KCTV, attorney Samantha Monsees discusses ways to make sure your Super Bowl pool is legal.

"The likelihood of the FBI or any other type of law enforcement coming in and cracking down is slim, but employers should certainly be aware," said Samantha Monsees, an attorney at Fisher Phillips.

"If the employer wants to have a betting pool ... I know a lot of times maybe, 'What song Lady Gaga wants to play for the halftime show first.' Things like that can build comradery and moral in the office, so those things are fine as long as the award is not monetary," she said.
