

In Good Hands

News

2.06.17

In the article, "In Good Hands," featured on Human Resources Executive Online, attorneys Steve Bernstein and Randy Coffey comment on Phil Miscimarra and Victoria Lipnic as President Trump's picks for the National Labor Relations Board and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Steve Bernstein, a partner at Fisher Phillips in Tampa, Fla., says that, as the NLRB's lone Republican for the past several months, Miscimarra has authored some of the more vigorous and compelling dissents seen in some time.

"An examination of those dissents may offer a roadmap of what we might expect going forward, as the board moves toward a return to full strength," he says.

According to Randy Coffey, a partner with Fisher Phillips in Kansas City, Mo., Lipnic previously worked with Democratic Commissioner Chai Feldblum and other commissioners to clarify and address certain employer concerns surrounding the regulations that the agency issued following the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act and on a 2016 task force to study harassment in the workplace.

To read the full article, please visit Human Resources Executive Online.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Steven M. Bernstein

Regional Managing Partner and Labor Relations Group Co-Chair

813.769.7513

Email

J. Randall Coffey

Partner

816.842.8770

Email

Service Focus

Labor Relations