RADIO APPEARANCE: DAVIS BAE DISCUSSES IMMIGRATION ORDER ON KOMO RADIO

News
Mar 7, 2017

On Monday, Donald Trump signed a reworked version of his travel ban in efforts to withstand court challenges. Washington State Attorney General Bob Ferguson believes that the new Trump executive order on immigration represents a victory for our state, but he still has some concerns. In an interview on KOMO Radio, Davis Bae addresses some of his own concerns with this new order.

“Well I think that this is a continuation of the same kind of language that we heard in the first executive order and it could have a chilling effect on people who want to come into the United States or stay in the United States,” says Bae.

Another concern Bae raised was that if you restrict visas in terms of freedom of travel without a visa to a European country, the European country could do the same thing to a U.S. citizen trying to visit.
