ATLANTA (March 22, 2017) – Fisher Phillips announced that Rich Meneghello, a partner in the firm's Portland, Oregon office, is being recognized as a JD Supra Top Author by the JD Supra's Readers' Choice Awards. Rich was selected from among thousands of authors the journal published during 2016. Specifically, Rich was given the award due to the high level of visibility and engagement he attained with readers on the subject of Employer Liability Issues.

Rich was also named as the Top Author in the country on the emerging topic of the Gig Economy; he serves as the co-chair of the firm's Gig Economy Practice Group and edits the firm's Gig Economy blog.

The Readers' Choice Awards recognize top authors and firms who were read by C-suite executives, in-house counsel, media, and other professionals across the JD Supra platform during 2016.

This year, the awards recognize:

- Authors for their excellent visibility and engagement attained with readers in specific industries (10 authors per category in 12 reader categories, from construction to financial services, retail to healthcare, energy to pharmaceuticals);
- Authors for their visibility and thought leadership covering key, cross-industry topics (10 authors per category in 13 topic categories, including cybersecurity, compliance, employer liability issues, the Affordable Care Act, the Dodd-Frank Act, patents, antitrust and trade regulation, and others);
- Authors in nine emerging areas of interest (one author per topic);
- Firms for their visibility and engagement in the 25 industries and topics covered by the awards (one firm per category).
