SEATTLE'S LAW TO UNIONIZE RIDE-SHARING COULD DAMAGE SERVICES LIKE UBER AND LYFT

News
Apr 21, 2017

In the article, "Seattle's Law to Unionize Ride-Sharing Could Damage Services Like Uber and Lyft," featured in Legal Newsline, Attorney Catharine Morisset discusses Seattle's attempt to unionize the ride-sharing economy.

"The traditional top-down organized labor approach conflicts with the ride-sharing philosophy and drivers may very well lose the flexibility to set their own hours and connect with customers across multiple ride-sharing apps," Morisset said.
