

GW University Resident Advisers Ruled Employees, Cleared to Unionize

News

4.24.17

In accordance to a recent ruling by the NLRB, George Washington University resident advisers are employees and may, therefore, vote to unionize. This ruling has the potential to cause a chain reaction within other school systems. In the article, "GW University Resident Advisers Ruled Employees, Cleared to Unionize," Joseph Ambash discusses the implications of this ruling with Bloomberg BNA.

The number of advisers potentially affected by the George Washington decision "must be in the thousands," said Joseph, who represented a dozen organizations supporting GWU.
