In January 2017, Philip A. Miscimarra was named acting chairman of the NLRB, transitioning from a temporary to a permanent position. In the article, "National Labor Relations Board Chair a Popular Choice with Business," featured in Business Insurance, Steven Bernstein notes the employer-friendly stance that Miscimarra will likely bring to the board.

"There's a cautious optimism" that Mr. Miscimarra's appointment "will signal a move by the agency to be more balanced in their analysis" and make decisions "that takes the business community into account" as well as organized labor, Mr. Bernstein said.
