News
May 6, 2017

Michelle Anderson was featured on WDSU on May 6, 2017. In the segment, Michelle discussed sexual harassment workplace policies following the Bill O'Reilly and Fox scandal.

"Every employer should have an anti-discrimination/anti-harassment policy that sets forth what the company deems to be inappropriate conduct," says Anderson. "It needs to include a reporting mechanism - who do you go to that you timely report it? It will be investigated and there will be no retaliation for bringing forth a valid complaint."
