

Worker-Friendly Rules Scrapped by Labor Dept.

News

6.07.17

The Labor Department recently announced that the USDOL would be withdrawing guidance published during the Obama administration that held franchise companies liable for wage and hour violations. In the article, "Worker-Friendly Rules Scrapped by Labor Dept.," featured in USA TODAY, Partner Cheryl Behymer discusses this shift in policy.

"I think it's a clear signal that the pendulum is swinging back to a more employer friendly Department of Labor," said Behymer.
