In the article, "State Medical Cannabis Laws Stoke Workplace Litigation," featured in Pacer Monitor, attorney Danielle Urban gives insight on Rhode Island Superior Court Justice Richard Licht's decision that the state's medical marijuana act outlaws discrimination in employment against cardholders.

"Other litigants and state courts may also look to Judge Licht's decision for guidance because medical marijuana could potentially be protected under state disability rights laws," said Danielle Urban, a partner and employment attorney with Fisher Phillips in Denver.
