Tampa Regional Managing Partner Steve Bernstein provided commentary in the article “NLRB Swings Right.”

The article, which appeared August 3 on HR Executive Online, reported on the new NLRB nominees that will ensure Republican control and likely lead to decisions that favor employers.

Bernstein says that what most of his clients are hoping to see is “some finality and the certainty” within employment law.

“We do live in turbulent times,” he says. “[Over] the past 10 to 12 years, there has been a lot of highly politicized decision-making that makes it hard to do business planning.” He also cites “at least a half-dozen big-ticket doctrines that have gone back and forth like a ping-pong ball.”
