

Grubhub Bench Trial Looks to be Sharing Economy Referendum

News

9.05.17

Jason Geller was quoted in the article, "Grubhub Bench Trial Looks to be Sharing Economy Referendum," featured in the Daily Journal. The article discusses the significance of the Lawson v. GrubHub Inc case and its potential implications for all other companies within the sharing economy.

Corley's ruling is expected to have "much broader implications," said Geller.

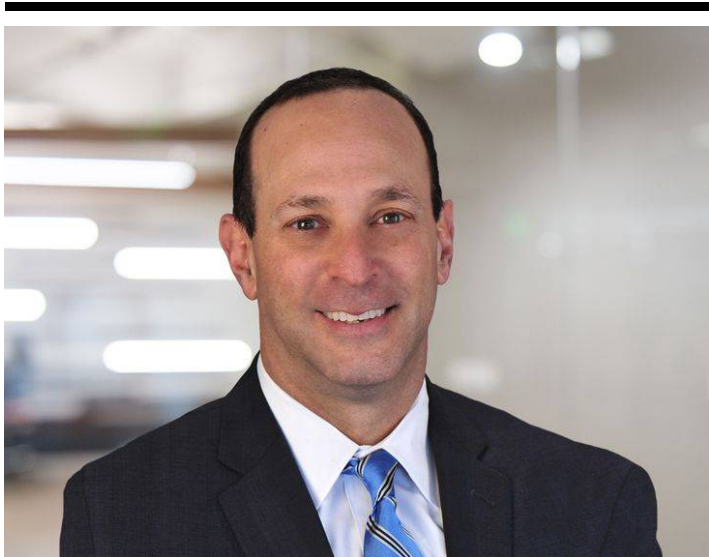

"The court could make some big decisions that will potentially reverberate throughout this sector of the economy," Geller said.
