While there are those that praise Assembly Bill 1209 for its efforts to bring pay equality to the workplace, some employment attorneys warn about its potential risks. In the article, "Employer Attorneys Concerned About Lawsuits as Wage Data Bill Passes Legislature," featured in the Sacramento Business Journal, Of Counsel Benjamin Ebbink provides his commentary on the matter.

"This might be a trawling expedition for plaintiff lawyers who are looking for disparities in pay at big companies" to form the basis for lawsuits, he said.
