

Interview: Lori Armstrong Halber on Jersey Matters

News

12.11.17

In her interview with Jersey Matters, Lori Armstrong Halber provides a legal viewpoint on how the recent sexual harassment cases that have come against Hollywood entertainers, politicians, company executives and others are affecting the workplace. She discusses how employers are dealing with such matters internally and how company policy bears in comparison with the law.

Employers are taking proactive measures to prevent potential future harassment complaints. Many employers are beginning to educate and train their employees on proper conduct, they are revisiting their policies and employee handbooks and they are taking complaints more seriously now more than ever before.
