Clarence Belnavis was quoted in the “Thought Leader Forum: New pay equity rules are near. Is your company ready?” which was featured in the Portland Business Journal. This article discusses the new pay equity rules and their implications for Oregon employers. The Oregon Equal Pay Act of 2017 aims to strengthen existing protections, creates new provisions to ensure an individual’s past salary does not hold them back when applying for a new job and requires all employers to conduct a pay equity study.
