Hospitality Practice Group Chair Andria Ryan was quoted in the Hotel News Now article “What Hoteliers Should Know When Employing Minors.” This article discusses the legal requirements and risks of employing minors.

“The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has said the hospitality industry has a particular problem with harassment as it hires vulnerable people, such as immigrants and foreign workers as well as young people,” explained Andria. “The laws in place governing the employment of minors require employers to protect their younger employees and if an employer doesn’t prevent harassment, the employer must act immediately to rectify it” she explained.
