

Defending Sex Bias Claims in the #MeToo Era

News

2.21.18

Danielle Moore is quoted in the Daily Journal article “Defending Sex Bias Claims in the #MeToo Era.” The article discusses the #MeToo movement’s effect on jury trials in cases touching on gender issues. In states like California, where potential jurors are especially aware of the movement, jury advisors and consultants have noticed a change in juror behavior during selection and trial.

Danielle notes she’s generally seeing more claims that would normally go unreported and plaintiff lawyers making settlement demands much larger than typical.

She advises clients to take cases out of trial and require arbitration agreements.
