BOSTON (March 30, 2018) – Cheryl Pinarchick of the Boston office, has been chosen as a legal “Client Service All-Star” by the BTI Consulting Group.

The designation honors attorneys who have “mastered the art of superior client service,” according to the Wellesley-based BTI. Honorees are nominated by corporate general counsel by name and without prompting, and no attorney or firm can self-nominate, self-refer or pay to be included. Cheryl was nominated by the general counsel of a leading technology company.

Cheryl has extensive trial experience in state and federal courts throughout the United States. In addition to offering litigation experience, she conducts equal pay and wage and hour audits, trains employers and their managers on hiring, firing and wage and hour issues, investigates discrimination and whistleblower claims, and develops handbooks, policies and procedures. Her clients include public and private companies across a wide variety of industries, including financial services, government relations and emerging technologies. She is co-chair of the firm’s Pay Equity Practice Group.
