

Attorney Comments on Boeing Flight Line Workers Voting for Union

News

5.31.18

The Post and Courier article “Boeing’s Flight Line Workers in North Charleston Vote for Union, Giving Organized Labor a Boost in South,” quotes Michael Carrouth on other workers who might want to join the union. The outcome of this vote gives new life to organized labor, and “other employees at the site will wait until they see what happens in negotiations before making a decision on union representation,” he said.

For the full article, visit The Post and Courier. (Subscription required)

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Michael D. Carrouth

Partner

803.255.0000

Email

