

San Francisco Regional Managing Partner Discusses Outside Investigations of Harassment Claims

News
9.06.18

In the Daily Journal article titled “Outside investigations of harassment have pros and cons,” San Francisco Regional Managing Partner Jason A. Geller is interviewed regarding external investigations of workplace harassment claims. Jason explains that there has been a push recently towards using outside investigators to handle these claims for reasons like transparency, objectivity and efficiency. He says using outside counsel sends the message “that the company takes these types of complaints seriously.”
