

Fisher Phillips Adds Anthony Guzman in San Francisco

News

10.16.18

SAN FRANCISCO (Oct. 16, 2018) – Fisher Phillips announces the addition of Anthony E. Guzman as an associate in its San Francisco office.

Anthony represents companies in a variety of employment litigation matters, including wage-and-hour claims and class actions arising under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the California Labor Code, the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) and the Uniform Trade Secrets Act (UTSA). He joins from Sutton Hague’s Fresno office.

During law school, Anthony clerked for the Institute for Justice and served as the internal director for the Berkeley Law Board of Advocates, overseeing and organizing internal tournaments. He also participated on Berkeley Law’s Labor and Employment Trial Team.

Anthony earned his J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law (2016) and his B.A., summa cum laude, from California State University, Fresno (2013).

---

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related Offices

San Francisco