

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Andrew C. Crane in Irvine

News

11.26.18

IRVINE (Nov. 26, 2018) – Fisher Phillips announces the addition of Andrew C. Crane as an associate in its Irvine office.

Andrew focuses on labor and employment litigation, defending employers in class and collective wage-and-hour claims, as well as single-plaintiff employment discrimination, harassment and retaliation matters. He represents clients in a variety of industries, including retail, healthcare and non-profit. Andrew joins the firm from CalOptima in Orange County.

During law school, Andrew served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Kathleen Mulligan at the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Honorable Ernest M. Robles of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. He earned his J.D. from the University of Southern California, Gould School of Law (2012), where he was a member of the Southern California Interdisciplinary Law Journal, and his B.A., cum laude, from Boston College (2006).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Andrew C. Crane

Partner

949.798.2116

Email

Related Offices

Irvine