

Irvine Partner Interviews on Top L&E Issues That May Impact Business Growth

News

12.10.18

In an interview with Business Growth Café, partner Bob Yonowitz spoke with host Angelo Ponzi on the issues that keep employers up at night, including documenting employee infractions, failure to maintain good timekeeping practices and managing the employer-employee relationship with employees with disabilities. Additionally, he addresses the new California laws on salary history bans, independent contractors and sexual harassment that will take effect next year and how they will impact potential growth for employers across the state.

To listen to the full interview, visit Business Growth Cafe.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Robert Yonowitz
Partner
949.798.2113
Email

Related Offices

Irvine

