

Fisher Phillips Attorney Discusses How California Employers Might Fare Under New Governor

News

12.14.18

In a recent interview with SHRM about whether California's new governor will be responsive to employers' business needs, Sacramento attorney Ben Ebbink signaled that the governor's business background could portend positive outcomes for employers. Ebbink stressed that a telltale sign would be how the governor responds to forthcoming competing legislation on classifying independent contractors.

To read the full article, visit SHRM.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Benjamin M. Ebbink

Partner

916.210.0400

Email