

Fisher Phillips Partner Reflects on Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce Chairmanship

News

12.21.18

In his article for the Tampa Bay Business Journal, Tampa partner Steve Bernstein reflects on the accomplishments of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce within the business community and the community at large during his tenure as 2018 chairman. Steve outlines the Chamber's focus on the issues that mattered the most to the community – transportation, education, workforce development, and affordable housing – and how the Chamber responded to the critical challenges and opportunities that arose. While 2018 was a successful year, he looks forward to a strong 2019 under new leadership who will continue to steer a course toward business success for every facet of the growing community.
