

Atlanta Partner Speaks with NBC News on Government Shutdown Impact on Contract Workers

News
1.15.19

As the partial government shutdown continues, contracted employees are likely facing delays in payments or, possibly, temporary layoffs. In the article “When the government shuts down, contractors and their employees pay a steep price,” published by NBC News, Jennifer Sandberg tells reporters that “companies already in financial trouble might not be able to survive a few weeks with no revenue.” Therefore, she added: “Sending people home may be unavoidable.”
