For Law.com's "How I Made Partner" series, Chicago partner Jessica Causgrove reflects on her path to partnership at Fisher Phillips. In the profile, Jessica explores how taking ownership of her client work, cultivating meaningful relationships with clients and colleagues, and her extensive dedication to the practice of law helped her pave the way to partner. For attorneys seeking to take that next step in their careers, Jessica recommends getting out of the office, whether it be through networking, speaking opportunities or meeting new people in their communities. Additionally, she says, "to always keep learning... after all, the law continuously evolves, as do your clients' needs."
